

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CRYSTAL CALLAWAY,

Defendant.

8:12CR379

ORDER ON APPEARANCE FOR SUPERVISED RELEASE VIOLATION

The defendant appeared before the Court on September 9, 2020 regarding Second Petition for Offender Under Supervision [106]. Mary Gryva represented the defendant. Martin Conboy represented the government.

The government moved for detention based upon risk of flight and danger. The defendant was not in federal custody and the issue of detention was held in abeyance until such time as the defendant comes into federal custody.

The defendant has now come into federal custody and has submitted the issue of detention to the court. The court finds that the defendant failed to meet her burden to establish by clear and convincing evidence that she will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6); 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1). The government's motion for detention is granted as to risk of flight and danger and the defendant shall be detained until further order of the Court.

The defendant shall be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or designated representative for confinement in a correctional facility and shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. Upon order of a United States court or upon request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 5th day of October, 2020.
